DESERTS HER LITTLE BABE

Mrs. Earnest Farrell Arrested at Kenton.

HUSBAND FILES CHARGES

Wife Spent Time in Resorts of Notorious Character.

Pleading of Husband, Father, Mother and Children to Return Home Had Little Effect on Her.

A scene, disgusting in its details, yet touched with a degree of pathos that unloosed the tear valves from the most hardened, occurred Monday morning in the mayor's court when Mrs. Mary Farrell was brought before the mayor on the charge of deserting her babe of less than two years.

The charge was brought by the husband of the woman, Earnest Farrell. Mrs. Farrell was arrested in Kenton Saturday night and was brought here Sunday by Officer Mc. Donough.

The Farrells have had a hard time getting along for some time, principally on account of the unworthiness of the wife. They have three children, Ina Belle, the baby aged 23 months, Esther aged 4 years and Hazel, aged 7 years.

The husband told the mayor that his wife had refused to perform her duties for many weeks. Their home on Edwards street has been filthy, because she would not clean up. She spent most of her time at near-by resorts of notorious character. The husband earned between seventy and eighty dollars per month, but was unable to properly provide for his family because his wife was very extravagant. The grocery bill for one month under her management was $75 for the five persons in the family.

In the court room the woman was not the least penitent. Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Shirk, her husband and her pretty little babe pleaded with her to come back home and promise to be good. Father, mother, husband, and children wept as though their hearts would break, and yet the mother maintained a stoical silence, paying not the least heed to their entreaties.

When she learned that she would take a trip to the workhouse unless she changed her ways, the woman promised to stay at home, attend to her duties and be a faithful wife. Her promises were made with no show of emotion and though doubting her sincerity, the mayor suspended the workhouse sentence on condition that the woman behaves herself properly.

During the enactment of the little drama with its tragic features, the only dry eyes in the crowded court room were those of the woman herself.

MRS. JACOB HESSLEY
DIES SATURDAY

Death Follows a Short Illness of Stomach Trouble.

Deceased was a Former Resident of Marion County and Had Friends and Relatives Here.

Mrs. Jacob Hessley, a former resident of Marion county and a lady well known in this city died Saturday morning at 6 o'clock at her home on South Eighth street in Upper Sandusky.

The Upper Sandusky Chief, of Saturday, has the following to say: "Mrs. Hessley passed away very quietly at her home, on South Eighth street, at 6 o'clock Saturday morning, surrounded by her loved ones. She had been in comparatively good health and was up town last Saturday afternoon. She however had been suffering with congestion of the stomach for several days past and complained of feeling ill about 4 o'clock Saturday morning and gradually sank away. Dr. I. N. Bowman, her family physician, was called, but before he arrived death had claimed her as his own. Her death was due to heart failure and came as a great shock to the family and friends.

Miss Christina Coppler was born in Baden, Germany, on December 9, 1833, having been in her seventy-fourth year. She came to Boston when a child of tender years and later moved to Marion county. There she was united in marriage with Jacob Hessley, a sturdy young farmer of Marion county and they lived happily together for nearly fifty years. After residing in Marion county a short time they moved to Salem township this county, where they were honored residents for many years. They have resided on South Eighth street the past three years. Mrs. Hessley was the mother of twelve children nine of whom survive her. They are Mrs. George Barkley, of Marion county; Mrs. Jacob Zimmerman, of Marion; Mrs. Charles Carpenter, Mrs. Martin Baehr, Mrs. Harriet Horn, Jacob Delbert and William Hessley, of this city and Mrs. John Fink of Bucyrus.

Mrs. Hessley is also survived by the following sisters and brothers, Mrs. Henry Kloeffer; Mrs. William Distelbaugh and Mrs. Joel Chesebrough and Henry Coppler, all of near Carey; Mrs. Catharine Slemmer and Chas. Coppler of this city; and Andrew Coppler of east of town.

Mrs. Hessley was a kind, christian wife and mother, and the family and friends are bowed in deepest sorrow because of her taking away. She was a member of St. Paul's congregation for many years.

The funeral occurred at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from the home and was conducted by Rev. Joseph Sittler. Burial followed in Oak Hill cemetery.

YOUNG LADS
LEAVE HOME

Arrested by the Police at Columbus.

REPAIR SHOP ROBBED

Boy in Knee Trousers Steals Several Revolvers.

Good Description of Youthful Burglar is Secured and Now Police are After Him imbued with great ideas of great careers and or following the strenuous life, Verne Gamble, aged 11 years, son of Mrs. E. O. Gamble, of the Boulevard, Earnest Helwig, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Helwig, of Olney, Avenue, and Paul McNare, son of Mr. Fred McNare, ran away from their homes Sunday about noon.

The boys went to Sunday School and then gathered at the Gamble home. They were fully prepared for their trip and unknown to their parents they boarded a C. D. and M. car for Columbus.

When the boys did not return to their home last night, searches were made by each of the parents, and each reported the matter to the police.

Early this morning the police received a telephone call from Columbus, stating that the three lads were under arrest there. Captain Worthington went to Columbus and brought them back to the city.

Mike Hickman, a familiar character in police circles, hailing from Agosta, was arrested Saturday night on South Main street, by Officer Chapman, and charged with drunkenness. Mike gets full every time he comes to Marion. When the officer placed him under arrest, he had a big knife in his hand and was threatening to kill everyone in the Weber restaurant on South Main street.

At his hearing Sunday morning, Hickman was sentenced to a term of thirty days in the workhouse. He was taken to Columbus Monday morning by Officer Babcock.

The repair shop, owned by S. Fogelson, at the rear of the Stoll Shoe store, on South Main street, was entered Sunday morning by a boy burglar and several old revolvers were stolen. Judge Schultz, who resides over the shoe store, passed by the door of the shop and the boy became frightened and ran into the alley. The judge gave chase but the boy burglar was too fleet of foot and made his escape. He was clad in knee trousers, and Mr. Schultz is positive that he could not have been more than thirteen or fourteen years of age. He furnished the police a good description of the boy and it is thought that he can be located.

MR. PETER MCCLAIN
PASSES AWAY

After Short Illness With Congestion of Lungs.

Deceased Had for Over Forty Years Resided in This City—Funeral Wednesday.

Peter McClain, aged 75, for over forty years a resident of this city, died at 2 o'clock Monday morning at his residence, No. 213 Davids street.

The cause of his death was congestion of the lungs. The deceased had been critically ill for several days, but Sunday he felt much improved. A sudden relapse brought on heart failure, which contributed to his death.

Peter McClain was born December 2, 1832, in Frederick county Maryland. He came to Marion in 1865 and had lived here ever since. For a number of years he had been employed as janitor in the Davids street school building. A wife and three sons, Edwin McClain, of Oregon; Marion and John of this city; and three daughters, Mrs. Emma Malone, Mrs. Anna Krause and Miss Adeline McClain, all of this city survive.

The funeral services will be held at the residence Wednesday afternoon and will be followed by interment at Marion Cemetery.

FINE PROGRAM
AGAIN OFFERED

At the Marion Family Vaudeville House

Press Notices Say Onida and Prof. Lee Give a Cabinet Act Hard to Surpass.

An unusually strong bill will be presented this week at the Marion Family theater. The feature act will be Onida, the queen of mystery, ably assisted by H. V. Lee in numerous mysterious novelties. While the team was playing at Moore's theater, the Rochester, N. Y., Herald said, "Onida and Prof. Lee with their spiritualistic cabinet gave as clever a turn as that of the much talked of Anna Eva Fay."

Jeanne and Ellsworth in a novelty musical act, come to Marion with the reputation of being one of the cleverest teams now on the vaudeville stage.

Tulsa, the girl with the big black eyes, is another strong act, and her clever impersonations and lightning changes will take the fancy of local theater goers.

The DeLacey, black face warblers and dancers are warranted to tear off the roof when they open their jar of jokes and songs.

Miss Coleman is still in the city and this week will sing "Palm Little Soldier Man." The song will be illustrated. The moving picture man will tear off half a dozen yards of film chucked full of comedy. Taken as a whole the show should be a dandy.

Saturday afternoon the prizes for school children went to Edna Lytle and Edward McGay.

Delights in Destroying the Long Green

LITTLE ELSWORTH CAREY

Gets Rid of Contents of Father's Pocketbook

Over One Hundred Dollars Burned and Mother Discovers Child in Act of Burning $75 Check

Elsworth Carey, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carey of Agosta, apparently has a mania for destroying money. Although but a mere tottering baby, he knows what money looks like and he also knows how to destroy it. Sunday morning the lad crept out of his little trundle bed while his father and mother were yet in dreamland and by climbing upon a table managed to secure his father's bill book from a high shelf. The boy removed sixty-five dollars in five and ten dollar bills from the book and packing them in a stove, stood by and crowded while the flames devoured the hard earned filthy lucre.

The child's crows of delight aroused the mother who suspected that the child was in mischief and hastening to the room caught the youth in the act of burning a $75 check which it had just removed from the bill book. The mother and father cannot account for the child's disposition as several weeks ago it burned several five-dollar bills which it found in the father's pockets.

There was nothing left of the $65 but some black charred remains and no part of the bills could be found so the numbers could be recognized to make them redeemable and the unfortunate occurrence is a total loss.
